northfieldlibrary Ever wondered where your library books go after you return them? They take a vacation to our meeting room, where they spend a luxurious few days quarantining before being shelved again. Libraries look different this year, but one thing that hasn't changed is our passion for supporting our communities! 📖

A big Thank You! to all those who took part in our recent Valentine's Day cooking class. (We were able to distribute kits and beamed our instructor into your homes via the magic of Zoom.) We had a great time and we hope you did too! (& thanks for allowing us to share the pictures 😊) #snapshotdaynj
